CIVIL MATTERS

Will Claim Attention of Court This Week.

Few cases of much importance to the public have been disposed of as yet. Only common law cases are being heard and the commonwealth docket will not be resumed until next week.

The suit of M. E. Nolen against the city was tried Saturday and the jury on yesterday returned a verdict for plaintiff for $61.75, the amount for. The plaintiff alleged that the salt which was stored in a very stable on West Seventh street, was badly damaged by the flooding of the building, the overflow, it was claimed, being caused by the faulty construction of sewers.

In the suit of Dr. T. P. Allen, against L. McComb & Co., the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $30.

Hattie Elkins was granted a divorce from her husband, Robert Elkins, Jr.

FORMER CITIZEN

Of This County Died at Abilene Texas, Yesterday.

Mr. John B. Bell, who went to Abilene, Texas, from this county 20 years ago died yesterday morning about 2 o'clock aged 80 years.

Mr. Bell was one of our most substantial farmers and owned what is now known as the "Morrow Farm," about two miles from the city on the Clarksville pike. Since he moved to Texas he had made his home at Abilene.

A telegram announcing Mr. Bell's death was received by his nephew, Mr. George Taylor, yesterday. The remains will be interred in Abilene. The deceased is survived by his two sons, Messrs. John and Jack Bell, who live in Abilene. Mrs. W. R. Thomson is a niece of the deceased.

STREET SPRINKLING

At Expense of Property Owners to be Voted On.

The Henderson Gleaner is going to take the sense of the people, by ballot, as to whether the streets of the city should be sprinkled during the coming summer at the expense of the property owners.

Last summer the streets of Hopkinsville needed sprinkling, more than any previous year. The question as to who ought to pay the bills is a hard one to solve.

The Island of Madeira A Neglected Paradise.

Belongs to Portugal
and Has a Population of 150,000.

HOME OF COLUMBUS.

Mission Station--Unlawful to Preach the Protestant Religion.

LETTER NO. 2, MILLARD A. JENKINS.

Funchal, Madeira, Feb. 25.—Speaking of steamships, reminds me of the experience meeting I heard about. One old brother got up and said, "Brethering, I'm on board the old ship 'o' Zion, and she's a monstrous ship. She's a ship of 15,000 horse power, runnin' at the rate of fifteen knots an hour, an' soon she'll steam into the harbor of the blessed."

Another old brother arose and said, "Brethering, I'm on that same old ship, but she 'pears to me to be a bigger ship than that. She's a ship of 20,000 horse power an' a runnin' at the rate of 20 knots an hour, and soon, ah, soon! she'll drop her anchor in the harbor of the blessed."

Then an old woman arose. She said, "I'm bound for that same kentry, but I aint goin' by no steamship. For forty year I've been a takin' it afoot, an' it 'pears now as I will continue to foot it; an' if the bretherings what's a goin' by steam don't mind, they're a goin' to bust their bilers."

Sight seeing has begun. The wonder is if one small head will hold all that is to be learned. What a change from water, water everywhere. The island of Madeira is a delightful surprise. The island has a population of 150,000, 50,000 of these being in Funchal, the capital. The island belongs to Portugal. This island was once the home of Columbus. He married his wife here, Menina Perestrelo, whom he met at a school in Portugal. Cupid drove the arrow to the right spot, and Christopher followed Menina to her beautiful island home, and married her. On the street where his house stood is a modern building with a tablet bearing his name.

The island is only 13x33 miles, rising in some portions to a height of 5,000 feet. The streets of the city are narrow and paved with small, round stones. The means of street travel is the "bull car," a two-seated vehicle on runners like a sled, drawn by oxen.

A steam cog road carries you two miles up the mountain, and a kind of toboggan, guided by a swift runner, brings you down at a speed of five minutes to the mile. I felt very much towards the two old men who guided my toboggan like Mark Twain felt towards his little donkey in Egypt, when he decided to walk awhile and let the donkey ride. Another means of street travel is the "rede," a kind of haumock carried by two robust natives.

This is a country where you can feel rich. It takes 1,000 reis to make a dollar, and a 20 reis piece is fully as large as our half dollar. The people are poor. Beggars abound, yet from the splendid gardens, vineyards and cane fields, you are not altogether indolent. On the whole, they seem to be a thrifty people.

This is a Catholic stronghold, and as in all these eastern Catholic countries, religion is little more than a Sixteenth century superstition. There is a Methodist mission here under the leadership of Dr. Smart, but he tells me that it was difficult to make headway. Strictly speaking, every meeting he holds is a violation of law. The mission is simply tolerated, not recognized by law. It was my privilege, along with a few others of the cruise, to speak at this mission. It was the first time I ever spoke a word for Jesus, when I was really breaking the law to do it.

The missionaries and the native members of the mission gave a special service for the large number of visitors, but only about twenty of us were there. But what a feast we had! The ball at the Casino, one of the most notorious gambling resorts this side the Atlantic, drew a larger number. I suppose these Christian pilgrims on their way to the land where Jesus lived, thought they could do the people more good by giving a ball at the Casino, showing them how little difference there is in the real Christian article in America, and in this devil possessed island across the sea, and by lending a bit of real Christian respectability to this notorious resort of sin.

God pity the preacher whose church is composed of such men and women at home. When I see a poor little preacher fretting, and pulling, and puffing, wearing his life out trying to make the work go with that sort of going to curse his work, and break his heart, I am reminded of the story of the Irishman's team. He had a kicker, a butter, a stinger and a stinker—a mule, a billy goat, a bumblebee and a skunk. He got his load to market, but couldn't get his team in. I couldn't help but ruminate, as Bill Arp would say, a little. If the old ship should go down, who would die praising God, and who would die pleading for mercy, the church members who went to the mission, or the church members who went to the dance at the gambling resort? A man with one eye and a half an ounce of brains could answer that question.

A card club has been organized aboard, presided over by a preacher. Do you wonder that he is in the list of "not wanted" in his denomination, and is without a charge? Certainly he is not wanted, and yet he has as much right before God and man to play cards as any church member in his denomination.

A dancing club also has been organized. The enthusiasm of visiting the land where Jesus lived and died, the land where was born our blessed gospel, seems to have settled in their heels rather than in their hearts.

On board a great ship with hundreds of passengers, you find, as you will find in any community, people professing Christ's name, who are like the trail of the fellow's snake, "He wired in and wired out, and left the looker-on in doubt, Whether the snake was coming in, Or whether he was going out."

But for a Christian to live a compromised life, is hard on God. PARTY IN JERUSALEM.

New York, March 9.—We are advised by cablegram of the safe arrival of the Arabic cruise party at Jerusalem today. The party report "all well."

NEAR DEATH'S DOOR.

Mr. George Washington McGee, of Bennettstown, Ill.

Mr. G. W. McGee, of Bennettstown, is very ill and information yesterday was to the effect that his death was momentarily expected. He had been unconscious several hours, the message stated. His son, Tandy D. McGee, of this city, went to Bennettstown yesterday morning. Mr. McGee is in his 81st year and has not enjoyed good health for some time.

110,000 Lbs Tobacco.

I paid last week one hundred and ten thousand dollars for tobacco on my Loose Floor, and in an experience of nearly forty years I have never seen a more profitable investment. I am now thoroughly satisfied that the Loose Floor is the place for the farmer to sell his tobacco. It is a simple matter to get a very small charge and get the CASH and get his crop off his hands before he has any more tobacco. Let me caution you not to get your tobacco too high nor too dry in order, as some of you are, that you will not have enough of moisture to make it show well. You had better decide and buy now. Come around and see me or call me up some night over the phone. My phone are: C. 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21. Will be glad to serve you.

A POE MEMORIAL

MONUMENT TO BE ERECTED TO THE GENIUS OF THE POET.

Richmond, Va., Desires to Honor His Literary Achievements Regardless of His Human Fratilities.

There is not in all the world a monument to the memory of Edgar Allen Poe, considered by many as one of the great literary geniuses of America. Nowhere in all the world is there a towering shaft to tell the present and future generations that he lived and loved and died.

All that exists in a small stone to mark the lonely grave of the poet in a cemetery in Baltimore. At the University of Virginia the Zelony bust stands on its pedestal, the most pretentious work in marble or in bronze to the memory of Poe.

A man unique in the world of letters, a genius as rare as the little blue flower that blooms in the snow on the Alpine heights, occupying a niche distinctly his own among the great men of the world, Poe sleeps the long sleep in his narrow bed, and the world has not honored him.

Born in Boston of pauper parents, reared in adversity, unfortunate throughout his life, he gave to the world the greatest poems any American has ever written, and went to his ignominious death alone, his head among the clouds while his feet stumbled among the paint pots and rubbish.

It is indeed befitting that the first real movement looking to a monument to this colossus among literary folk should emanate from Virginia, the state in which he produced most of his good work, and in which he

Joseph E. Willard, President of Poe Monument Association.

spent probably the happiest years of his life.

It is indeed befitting that the monument should be erected in Richmond, Poe's adopted home, where there still live men and women who knew the man and loved him. The movement has now reached a stage where the erection of the monument is no longer a thing to be hoped for, but an assured fact. The greater portion of the necessary money is already in hand.
Subscriptions are coming in every day from the friends of the genius all over the entire country.

With the advent of the spring the stage will be reached where the plans are drawn and the artist designated for the work has bent his mind upon the great theme which he has to deal with.

Charles Marshall Graves of the editorial force of the Times-Dispatch, a graduate of Richmond college, and a lifelong student of Poe, has probably more than any other man to fur-ward the movement which is now just about to culminate successfully.

Col. Joseph E. Willard, former lieutenant governor of the state, and reputed to be the richest man in the south, is president of the Poe Monument association. The association has been formally chartered by the state corporation commission under the laws of the state of Virginia, its purposes being distinctly set forth in the charter. Mrs. Susan Archer Weiss, the only living woman friend of the poet, is lending her energies to the success of the movement.

The councils of the city of Richmond have appropriated $5,000 to the monument with the one proviso that an additional sum shall be raised on the outside before the fund shall become available. A similar fund had already practically been raised on the outside before the appropriation had been made.

It was because Poe had been refused place in the Hall of Fame on account of his personal habits that his friends in the south built upon the idea of a monument to be erected in Richmond, where he spent the greater portion of his brilliant and checkered career.

The monument is to be erected not a commemorative of the man, but a memorial to find what was human in him but that which was sublime.

Hard Requirement.

This curious official notice was once posted in Germany: "At the request of Herr Wilhelm Leisner of Lunenburg, the deceased John Leis-ner, who was drowned in May, 1869, on a journey from Stockholm to Hamburg in the Kaiser Friedrich, is hereby called upon by the courts to appear and assert himself on or before April 1, 1881, under pain of being declared dead."

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.— plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

OLDEST CITIZEN

In South Christian Dies at age of 95 Years.

Lafayette, Ky., March 11.—Gillum Ebell, probably the oldest man in Christian county, died at the home of his son, Birch Ebell, near Lafayette, at seven o'clock Saturday night. He succumbed to the increasing infirmities of extreme old age, as he was nearly 95 years old. A great part of his life had been spent in that vicinity. He reared a large family of boys, six or seven of whom survive him. All are grown. His wife died many years ago.

Mr. Ebell was a member of the Christian church. His burial took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

$1,000 A YEAR.

Should a Young Man With That Income Marry?

The question as to whether a young man with an income of only $1,000 a year should marry was discussed at length behind closed doors at Cleveland, Ohio, last week. There are plenty of young married men here who live on less than that amount. In fact there are plenty of them who get only $600 and manage to save a little, too, especially those whose wives try to help the poor fellows in their struggles for a living.

A Victim of Bright's Disease, Died Sunday.

Mr. Burr W. Harlow, a well known farmer, but who for the past six months had been traveling for the Frick Threshing Machine Co., died Sunday afternoon at one o'clock aged 38 years. He and his family had rooms at Mrs. Sue C. Shanklin's, on South Virginia street. The cause of his death was Bright's disease. The deceased leaves a wife and one little son. Burial took place in Riverside cemetery yesterday.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE GRIP

Still Has a Strong Hold on This City.

Though it has not lost its hold, the grip is not quite so prevalent as in the past two weeks. Many of those who have been shut in are beginning to show up again on the streets, but still there is "plenty of room for complaint," and they are complaining. The mortality in the city and county has been very light. The Inquirer says that in Owensboro there is so much of the dreaded disease that the force at the postoffice has been very much depleted and many of the stores are short of clerks.

Health in the Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Hardwick, druggist, 25c.

Baby won't suffer five minutes with colic if you apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil at once. It acts like magic.

NEW COMERS

Are Requested to Make Themselves Known.

The City Directory compiled up to Jan. 1st is now in press and persons who have come into the city since Jan. 1st, who will report themselves at once to the Kentuckian office, can get their names in the alphabetical lists, except the first few letters which are printed. Already about 40 white men, most of them with families, have been found who have moved to Hopkinsville since the census was taken. This part of the directory is without cost to those whose names are listed. Change of location can also be made for a few days longer. The book will be out in a few weeks.

CREATORE

And his Band of 60 at Tabernacle, April 5th.

It gives us great pleasure to make the above announcement, and we are sure the music loving public will hail with delight, the date of this world famous leader and band.

Creatore is in Louisville at the Exposition, is being featured very extensively, and will prove the drawing card for this celebration. The date here is made possible only by our selling his dates at Bowling Green, Nashville, Owensboro and Evansville, thus taking up an entire week of his time. We have been in correspondence with the manager of this celebrated organization, for two seasons, trying to land them for our local public, but until this season, it has been impossible to attract attention, and get them interested.

Rates have been secured from the railroads, and a special train secured, which will bring in lots of out of town music lovers. We make the announcement early so you may make your arrangements to be here so you may enjoy this superior attraction.

REV. GEO. W. McPHERSON

Will be Absent Next Sunday and Dr. Compton Will Preach For Him.

Rev. Geo. W. McPherson left for Owensboro yesterday to assist in a revival at First Baptist church of Owensboro, for ten days. His pulpit next Sunday will be filled morning and evening by Rev. T. N. Compton, the big evangelist, who is big in every way, physically, intellectually and in the reputation he enjoys all over the South as one of the strongest men of his denomination.

A feature of the service next Sunday morning will be the singing by Mrs. Barksdale Hamlett of "The Holy City." Rev. M. A. Jenkins will be on Mt. Calvary that day and before he left he requested Mrs. Hamlett to sing the song he selected on that day.

Another of Mr. Jenkins' letters appears in the Kentuckian today. These letters will appear regularly during his tour abroad.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mrs. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Hardwick drug store, 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Males sore on its merits by all the druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

Coal Train Wrecked.

Guthrie, Ky., March 9.—A coal train from Lexington to Nashville was wrecked near Trenton today, the cause being a broken wheel. Eight car loads of coal were piled in a cut and had to be shoveled out before the track could be cleared. Trains were detained 1 1/2 days of Central City and Russellville.

Regulates the bowels, promotes easy, natural movements, cures constipation—Doan's Regulators. Ask your druggist for them. 25c a box.

You How.

Get at the root of the trouble.
Rubbing an aching back may re-

But it won't cure it.
You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it;
Reach the cause; relieve the pain.
They cure, too, so Hopkinsville people say.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson, wife of J. T.
Johnson, superintendent of streets, living at 616 North Main street, says: "During the latter part of last summer I noticed growing upon me a dull aching across the small of my back which kept getting worse until finally the pain became so severe that I was hardly able to walk around, and many times could not attend to my household duties.
The troubles I believe came from my kidneys for I suffered from other distressing symptoms of complaint.
I was subject to most severe headaches and frequent attack of dizziness. I learned about Doan's Kid-

GETTING RECRUITS

BIG FORCE OF NEW SOLDIERS NEEDED EACH YEAR.

The Largest Recruiting Station of West, That Located at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri.

The stuff out of which soldiers are made is picked up in the rough, crude state at the rate of about 20,000 head per year, and under the zealous hands of the drill master it soon becomes the trained soldier to do the nation's bidding and defend her interests wherever they may lie. All recruits for our army are assembled, enlisted, drilled and instructed at one of three depots: David's Island, New York; Columbus barracks, Ohio, and Jefferson barracks, Mo. Jefferson barracks draws its recruits from recruiting stations scattered through the west and south.
They come from all classes, professions and callings which go to make up the great American nation.

The first place to which the recruit is introduced is the receiving barracks.
Next in order is an exhaustive bath, taken under the supervision of a sergeant, who will advise the use of plenty of soap and water, as a generous government pays for it all.

After the bath the recruit goes across the hall to an examining room, where the surgeon and recruiting officer put him through a thorough, physical examination. A great majority of men who apply for enlistment are rejected physically. On account of the thoroughness of this examination we are believed to have as fine a body of men physically in our army as in any other in the world. After having his examination, the recruit is duly enlisted, has the articles of war read to him and is then solemnly sworn into the service of the United States, and has a short lecture delivered to him by the recruiting officer on the crime, folly and folly of desertion. He is then given a uniform and a sufficient quantity of underclothing, shoes and other necessities to fully equip him for his stay at the recruit depot.

The depot commander, Col. Evans, has made every effort toward instilling in the mind of the recruit while at the depot the primary essentials of a soldier—cleanliness, manliness, implicit obedience to his superiors and a soldierly carriage and deportment, and his sole idea has been to send to the post to which the recruit may go a young American soldier who has a respect for his uniform, a pride in his profession, a man of whom his future officers may be proud.

The recruit depot at Jefferson barracks was organized on August 10, 1906, in compliance with an act of congress appointed June 12, 1906, and comprises six recruit companies, numbered 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, and 19. The first, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth recruit companies are stationed at Fort Slocum, N. Y.; the seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh,

Lieut. Col. R. K. Evans, Commanding
Jefferson Barracks Recruit Depot.

twelfth and thirteenth companies are at Columbus barracks, Ohio.

These three depots organized under the provisions of the act of congress, under the supervision of the secretary of war, were necessitated by the exigencies of the service, and in future will be maintained as schools of instruction for embryonic soldiers. The military secretary of the army is virtually the commanding officer of this regiment of 19 recruit companies consisting of the three battalions, and all correspondence and orders relating to members of these companies go to him direct.

A new feature in connection with the enlistment of recruits for military service is the complete identification record prepared under the supervision of officers trained for the purpose at the three depots, which includes a bust picture of the recruit, with his signature on cardboard, shown on the breast in each photo, besides a figure card showing all marks on the body of the recruit and his thumb impressions.
At the depot at Jefferson barracks, surgeon James D. Fife, medical department, assisted by Corp. Arthur O.
Butler, signal corps, and trained members of the hospital corps, prepare this identification record, which is forwarded direct to the surgeon general of the army at Washington for future reference and identification. With this system in vogue it will be an utter impossibility for a soldier to be re-enlisted in the service after having been discharged dishonorably or on suspension certificate of disability, except by the authority of the secretary of war, and will prevent the former practice of fraud upon the government.

THE KENTUCKIAN will send to the Jamestown Exposition the four most popular young women in Christian County.
The Kentuckian will pay every cent of expense, including railroad fare; Pullman fare; meals on train; hotel bills; street car fare; admission to grounds and amusement concessions;
side trips to points in the vicinity of the Exposition grounds.

The contest is open to any young lady making her home in Christian county. For each year's subscription to the Kentuckian at $2.00 the subscriber will be entitled to cast 40 votes.

Our contest began Nov.
15th and will continue for 6 months; to May 15.

YOU choose the candidate—WE don't. The minute a vote is cast for a young woman she becomes a candidate and her name is placed upon the published list, together with the total vote cast for her up to the time the list is published.

When a subscription is received at this office the subscriber is first credited with the amount of his subscription and the number of votes his subscription represents is credited to the candidate named by him.

The vote will be COUNTED EVERY FRIDAY at noon and each candidate will be credited with her new vote and her total vote to date and the result will be published in the next issue of the Kentuckian.

SKIN ECZEMA IN WORST FORM

Black Splotches All Over Face—Produced Severe Itching—Year's Treatment by Physicians Did No Good and Became Despondent—Affected Parts Now Clear as Ever —Alabama Lady's

CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black splotches all over my face and a few covering my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of annoyance and suffering, to such an extent that I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of my town. After a thorough examination of the dreaded complaint they pronounced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. They treated me for the same for the length of one year, but the treatment did me no good. Finally I became despondent and decided to discontinue their services. Shortly afterwards, my husband in reading a copy of a weekly New York paper saw an advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies. He purchased the entire outfit, and after using the contents of the first bottle of Cuticura Resolvent in connection with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, the breaking out entirely stopped. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every splotch was entirely gone and the affected parts were left as clear as ever. I have not felt a symptom of the eczema since, which was three years ago."

"The Cuticura Remedies not only cured me of that dreadful disease, eczema, but other complicated troubles as well, and I have been the means of others being cured of the same disease by the Cuticura Remedies, and I don't hesitate in saying that the Resolvent is the best blood medicine that the world has ever known." AMUSEMENTS.

At Holland's Opera House, Monday night, March 18, "The Dances of the Nations," will be presented in all its splendor by thirty-black-faced comedian dancers in the performance offered by the Donnelly & Hatfield Magnificent Minstrels, under the personal direction of Al. G. Field. The act begins in the Middle Ages with the Spanish dancers of the proud Castilians, illustrating the sports and pastimes of the cruel age when the proud Senoritas applauded the brutal bull fight. From primeval America to "Bonnie Scotland," the next scene, carries the spectator in the twinkling of an eye. The home of "Bobby" Burns, the mountains at daybreak, the village in the valley of twilight, moonlight on the waters of the River Doone, the highland dancers and pipers. To the next transformation in the spectacle. The sea stretching out to the sky line, the sail to America. From the ice-bound coast of a Northern clime to the sunwarm South is the next change. The weird valley, the croaking of the frogs, the hooting of the old night owl. This scene is where the "Pumpkin man" and his imp do the vanishing dance, appearing and disappearing like the firefly at night. The climax of this most magnificent review is the transformation from the valley of the spooks to the sunny South.

TEACHING SHORTHAND

is like teaching any other study—every teacher employs a slightly different method, but nearly all teach the same basic principles.

In teaching shorthand, we use the Barnes' Manual, compiled by Mrs. Arthur J. Barnes, of Barnes' College, the largest Commercial College in St. Louis. The author presents only the Genuine Benn Pittman system, but in the manner which her long and successful career as teacher and all-round reporter has shown her to be the best. Our pupils, therefore, get the benefit of her experience. Our course of study is thorough and our teachers competent and painstaking.
